City of Austin

Review of North Main Project

Erichson gave a presentation to the board on the North Main Flood Control Project. He talked about the study that was done and gave a history of the project.

The City of Austin is requesting that CRWD permits not be required due to the fact that the North Main Project has started.

Jim Hurm, City of Austin Administrator/Port Authority, talked with the board about the project and requested that the CRWD board consider the above permit request.

Jones thanked Erichson and the City of Austin for the presentation.

Workshop adjourned.
